Time: Leisurely 30-45 minute walk.

The trail begins either at the Chena Kennel or Yurts by the Duck Pond and circles around the Beaver Pond. Easy, flat trail suitable for runners, mountain bikes, hikers, and skiers.

Monument Creek Trail

Distance: About 2.75 miles round trip.

Time: Leisurely 1.5-2 hour walk.

The trail begins either behind the hot springs or at the road entrance to the resort. This area along Monument Creek offers an easy, flat hike through the valley. Suitable for mountain bikers, hikers, and skiers.

Charlie Dome

Distance: About 2.25-3 miles one way.

Time: Moderate to Difficult 1.5-2.5 hour hike one way.

This scenic hike winds up the hills and ends at the yurts on top of Charlie Dome (2.25 miles) or at the end of an ATV trail (3 miles). The end of the trail offers outstanding 360 degree views. The climb gains about 1,300 feet of elevation. Suitable for advanced hikers and skiers.

More Trail Descriptions

Upper Chena Loop (Ridge Trail)

Distance: About 2.25 miles one way to Bear Paw Butte.

Time: Difficult 1.5-2 hour hike one way to the Butte, 1-1.5 hour hike to the trail split.

Take the upper split of the trail behind the hot springs. Rewards the ambitious with beautiful view of the Chena Hills. Once on top of the ridge, take the trail to Bear Paw Butte for a higher view or continue toward Angel Rocks and Lower Chena Loop. The climb gains about 1,000 feet to the top of the Butte. Suitable for advanced hikers and skiers.

Lower Chena Loop

Distance: About 2.25 miles one way to Junction with Angel Rocks Trail.

Time: Moderate-Difficult 1-1.5 hour hike one way.

Take the lower split of the trail behind the hot springs. This hike along the hillside is a good trail to enjoy the outdoors surrounded by trees. Can be muddy so wear appropriate shoes. Suitable for advanced hikers and bikers.

Chena Loop

Distance: About 5 miles round trip.

Time: Difficult 2.5-4 hour hike.

Hiking both upper and lower Chena Loop. Recommended direction of travel is lower loop to upper loop because of the great view coming down from the upper loop. Suitable for advanced hikers and bikers.

General Guidelines

- Do not ski, hike, or bike alone. Always have another person with you
- Let someone know where you plan to hike/ski and your expected return time.
- Be aware of changing weather and trail conditions
- Ski under control and so that you can avoid other skiers or objects

Beginners Loop

Distance: About 1.5 miles round trip.

Time: Leisurely 30-45 minute ski

This trail is not recommended for hiking in the summer due to marshy conditions, but is a nice easy ski trail in the winter.
